

Oil Painters of America's

"Best Little Paint Out in Texas"

Wet Paint Competition Rules and Regulations

Painting: Wednesday, October 14 – Thursday, October 15

Sale: Friday, October 16 and Saturday, October 17

This event is held in conjunction with the Oil Painters of America's National Exhibition being held at RS Hanna Gallery. Cash and/or merchandise awards will be presented in both the indoor studio and plein air painting divisions. Paintings will be displayed at St. Joseph's Halle. Winners will be announced at the Awards & Recognition Ceremony at St. Barnabas Parish Hall on Friday evening, October 16, 2020. First place winners in the plein air and studio divisions will receive automatic inclusion in the following year's National Exhibition.

Plein Air (i.e. open air) paintings are executed outdoors from real life, as opposed to using photographs or models in a studio. Both painter and subject matter must be outdoors, and photographs may not be used.

Studio paintings are executed indoors. Both painter and subject matter must be indoors, and photographs may not be used.

Meet the Wet Paint Juror of Awards: John Pototschnik OPA

John Pototschnik was born in St Ives, Cornwall, England in 1945. Raised in Wichita, Kansas, he received a BFA degree from Wichita State University. Additionally, he studied design and illustration at Art Center College in Los Angeles, and figurative drawing and painting, under Deane Keller and Dan Gheno, at the Lyme Academy of Fine Art in Old Lyme, CT.

His professional career began as a freelance illustrator in Dallas, TX in 1972 and he worked with many of the area's top corporations, advertising agencies and designers.

Since beginning his fine art career in 1982, Pototschnik has become a popular speaker, writer, and juror. He has served as president of two local art organizations, is a Signature Member of the Oil Painters of America, a Master Signature Emeritus member of the Outdoor Painters Society and is recognized by the Art Renewal Center as a Living Master.
