

Presents The Thirty-second Annual National Juried Exhibition Of Traditional Oils

Oil Painters of America is traveling to the historic city of Charleston, South Carolina for the Thirty-second National Exhibition and Convention. The Exhibition will take place from March 31 through April 30, 2023, at Reinert Fine Art. Convention activities begin on Monday, March 27 with the Wet Paint Competition, and end on Friday, March 31. The awards ceremony will take place on Thursday, March 30, and the opening reception for artists, collectors, the public and the press will be held on Friday, March 31. Other events will include the fun, and sometimes humorous, Art Trivia Contest, the recently introduced Mystery Miniature Competition and more. Our goal is to assemble the finest display of representational oil paintings. The focus in the jurying process will be to select paintings that show the highest quality in draftsmanship, color, and composition, emphasizing a diversity in representational style and subject matter.

The total national awards will be approximately $100,000 in cash and merchandise, including a $25,000 Best In Show.

The Exhibition Juror of Awards will be Daud Akhriev OPAM. The Wet Paint Juror of Awards will be Christopher Zhang OPAM.

Artists eligible to compete are citizens - both natural born or otherwise - of the continent of North America who are 2023 OPA members. Nonresident aliens who currently live on the continent of North America are eligible to participate provided that they have been physically present at the address provided to OPA for eight of the last twelve months and that the residency is considered to be their permanent domicile and that they are 2023 OPA members. Nonresident aliens whose North American residency is in question will be asked to provide proof of residency including, but not limited to, employment history, references, and utility bills in the individual's name. The decision of the Board is final.
