DEAR OPA ARTISTS,

It is a real pleasure to welcome artists and art enthusiasts from across the country to the 33rd Annual Oil Painters of America National Exhibition. It is an incredible opportunity to learn, paint and connect with each other in the Sunflower State.

As it has been said, “Coming together is a beginning, staying together is progress, and working together is success.” For many years, 33 to be exact, OPA members have been coming together and forming friendships, staying together as friends through the years, and working together often. So whether you are a beginner or long-career painter, or in other aspects of the art business, it’s no surprise that OPA members are “a success story.”

We are especially pleased that the OPA National Show and Convention is hosted in the stately Mark Arts building, an architecturally exceptional space. We thank the Mark Arts staff for all their efforts in putting together this year’s national show – and it’s a great one!

Congratulations to all exhibiting artists. Your work stood out even among the over 2,000 outstanding paintings submitted for this show. Through a rigorous process our five jurors narrowed down the selection to the 200+ paintings that we see here on display and included in this catalog. Our award winners will be chosen by renowned artist Sherrie McGraw. As one of today’s leading artists, OPA is honored and pleased to have such a well-respected artist jury this show and help present our awards. This year the winning artists will take away a total of approximately $100,000 in cash and merchandise, including a $25,000 Best in Show award.

This year’s convention also features an impressive line-up of seven demo artists including special presentations by Daniel Keys and Suzie Baker OPA.

David Leffel, OPAM is deservedly receiving a Lifetime Achievement award. David has not only had an outstanding career and created a momentous body of work, but he has also guided and nurtured countless other artists throughout the years.

The ‘Kansas’ Great Plains’ Wet Paint Competition juried by John Taft, The Mystery Minis/Whodunnit event, presentations on framing, how to assess your own work, shipping, art materials, and great draw prizes add to the fun and excitement.

The planning of this national event takes a lot of hands, much time and many meetings. Our volunteer board is truly dedicated and very generous with their time. They work with the OPA staff who are busy all year organizing the many moving parts involved in a complex event of this size. Thanks so much to our entire board, our Executive Director Kathryn Beligratis and her staff – Liz Pusch, Carelin Ryan and Cameryn Creech, and also to our presenters, sponsors, vendors and our volunteers.

As this national show closes, our board and members are bidding adieu to our beloved Executive Director, Kathryn Beligratis, who has helped build OPA into what it is today with her excellent management and leadership skills. She always listened, found ways to make ideas turn into reality, and greeted problems with energy, enthusiasm, compassion and kindness. Her sense of fair play is exemplary and never wavered. She loved our members and our board members like a family, and she will always be family to us. But we are not letting her go completely. She will be staying on to do some part-time contract work for OPA while she also moves forward with some of her long-time dreams.

OPA is very pleased to have two people taking the helm from Kathryn who are well known to many of our members. We welcome Kurt Anderson OPA, as the new Executive Director. Kurt is a talented artist and business professional and has intimate knowledge of the organization from his many years as a board member and Financial Director. He welcomes your ideas and would love to hear from you as he takes the reins. His experience with OPA will bring continuity along with fresh new perspectives as we move forward as an organization.

Also well known to many of us is Liz Pusch who has been promoted to our new Assistant Executive Director. Liz has already served us faithfully, professionally and enthusiastically by assisting Kathryn on staff and working with the vendors and Masters among many other duties. So please join us in welcoming Kurt and Liz in their new roles and in wishing Kathryn all the best.

OPA National is an opportunity to see, learn and be inspired by the outstanding paintings and the artists you meet. We appreciate everyone who joined us at this event and all of you who worked so hard to make it possible.

Sincerely,

Susan Abma

Oil Painters of America

SHERRIE MCGRAW OPAM NATIONAL EXHIBITION JUROR OF AWARDS

Sherrie McGraw has been at the forefront of the American Art scene for over thirty years. As a young woman in Oklahoma City in 1978, she was urged by her teachers Richard and Edith Goetz to move to New York to study at the famed Art Students League where they had studied within the lineage of Robert Brackman and George Bridgeman. In her initial years at the League, she studied primarily with legendary artist, David Leffel, but also learned anatomy through Robert Beverly Hale and Jon Zahourke at the New York Academy. After just a few years in New York, she was already proceeding to make her own way as an exceptional artist and began exhibiting and winning awards in shows at the Salmagundi Club, the National Arts Club, the Hudson Valley Art Association, and more. By the time she was thirty, she was teaching classes at the Art Students League, having been asked to take over those of Thomas Fogarty and Gustav Rehberger, as well as conduct her own.

McGraw is the author of the highly acclaimed book, The Language of Drawing, which has garnered worldwide attention and can be found at the Metropolitan Museum of Art bookstore in New York City. Sherrie's work will be included in a book on drawing by Juliette Aristides and is presently writing her own book on painting.

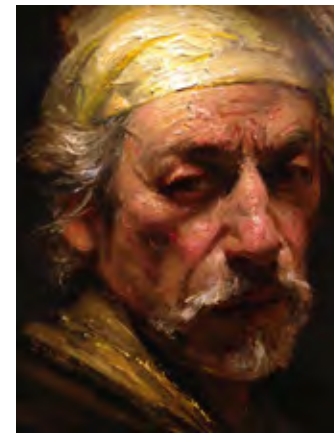

JOHN TAFT OPA WET PAINT COMPETITION JUROR OF AWARDS

Originally from western New York, John fell in love with the West during several cross-country trips while attending school at Art Center College of Design in southern California. Working in New York City as a designer/art director provided easy proximity to museums and galleries, nurturing a growing desire to paint, and in 2004 John left New York and moved with his young family to Colorado to begin pursuing painting, something he had come to feel called to do.

John has been honored to take part in many great shows and has received numerous awards, including Gold at the OPA Masters' Show in 2023, and also Gold at the OPA Western Regional exhibit in 2021. He also won Best Signature Painting at the 2018 OPA National, and also received the Best Landscape Award of Excellence twice at prior OPA Nationals. Additionally, he has exhibited in the American Masters show at the Salmagundi Club in NY, and the Coors Western Art show in Denver where he received an award of excellence. John has had multiple one man shows, and is primarily represented by Claggett-Rey Gallery in Colorado.

The majority of John's subjects are drawn from Colorado and the surrounding states, but he loves the coasts as well. John and his wife, recent empty-nesters, live in Longmont, Colorado.

DAVID A. LEFFEL OPAM Lifetime Achievement Recipient - 2024

OPA is proud to bestow its 2024 Lifetime Achievement Award to Master Signature artist David A. Leffel in recognition of his contributions to the Oil Painters of America and to the field of representational art.

Born in Brooklyn, New York, in 1931, David was diagnosed at the age of four with a life-threatening bone disease that required him to spend the next eleven years in various hospitals. Ironically, it was because of his confinement that David would spend much of his childhood honing his drawing skills and igniting his lifelong passion for the arts.

David eventually made his way to the Parsons School of Design and Fordham University. Later, he would take instruction at the famed Art Students League of New York where he flourished under the tutelage of Frank Mason. He would go on to spend the next 25 years as an instructor at the Arts Students League while establishing himself as one of today's preeminent artists. Galleries began to take notice of his special talent. Especially, two of the most prominent galleries at that time, the FAR Gallery in Manhattan, and Kenmore in Philadelphia. David would join some of the top representational artists of that time in the New York art scene including Burt Silverman, Harvey Dinnerstein, David Levine, and others.

As both a painter and a teacher, Leffel has been extremely successful. In 1984 he collaborated with Linda Catewa, a former student, on the much-praised book Oil Painting Secrets from a Master (Watson/Guptill, 1995).

Eventually, the allure of the west was too great for David and his partner, fellow artist Sherrie McGraw OPAM, and they moved from New York City to Taos, New Mexico. It is there that they found a slower paced and more peaceful lifestyle surrounded by stunning mountain ranges in every direction. In many ways, the cultural diversity in Taos was like NYC, only on a much smaller scale and that was very appealing to both David and Sherrie.

The connection between art and life is fundamental to Leffel's philosophy. He asserts, "The more you invest in anything, the more you get out of it. That's true in any area of life. That kind of attitude is always looking for a better solution: What's stronger, what's simpler? It requires insight to find a beautiful, consistent, structural unity. Like a good musical composition, everything dovetails, nothing is extraneous; everything functions for the good of the whole. It takes tremendous energy and commitment.

It is OPA's honor and privilege to celebrate David A. Leffel and his enduring impact on generations of artists.

IN MEMORIAM AWARDS RECOGNITION

ALDEN BRYAN MEMORIAL LANDSCAPE AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

Originally from Missouri, Harvard-educated in economics, an avid sailor and tennis player, Alden Bryan married Mary Taylor, a sculpture student, and a year later, they sailed into Gloucester Harbor, providing them with their first glimpse of working landscape artists.

Subsequent to studying with Emile Gruppe in Gloucester, Bryan went to Vermont in 1939 to study painting with Charles Curtis Allen, N.A. Shortly thereafter, the Bryans settled on a dairy farm in Jeffersonville, where he introduced pasteurized milk to the area. Establishing a bakery, restaurant, and inn, designing the base lodge of Smugglers Notch Resort, and building the first indoor tennis center in Vermont, throughout a lifetime of varied achievements, Bryan painted. Every summer, the Bryans returned to their studio and art gallery in Rocky Neck, Gloucester, where he was the proprietor of the Rudder Restaurant for 25 years.

Bryan painted in over 25 countries, ranging from Katmandu to Cape Horn, Africa, the Antarctic, Hong Kong, and Indonesia. Still, it was in Vermont, in the old city of Quebec, and on the Massachusetts seacoast where Bryan’s command of painting produced his most compelling works. Over 1,000 paintings cover the changes in the local farmland of Vermont and the waterfront docks, recording the transformation from the age of sail to the age of steam.

Alden’s wife, Mary Bryan, expressed herself masterfully in various artistic media. She and Alden operated the Bryan Gallery in Rocky Neck, MA, exhibiting their work for over 30 years. While there, she studied painting with the legendary American artist Emile Gruppe and attended watercolor classes with Eliot O’Hara at his school in Goose Rocks Beach, Maine. When Mary Bryan died in 1978, Alden Bryan set out to build a gallery in her memory, giving mortar and design to a spirit the Bryans had nurtured for over three decades. Inviting the best artists he knew to exhibit, the non-profit Mary Bryan Memorial Gallery on Main Street in Jeffersonville became a magnet for the finest painters in New England. To this day, this area continues to be a mecca for New England landscape painters.

TED GOERSCHNER OPAM MEMORIAL IMPRESSIONIST AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

“I never wanted to be anything else but an artist.” – Ted Goerschner

Raised on the East Coast, Ted Goerschner wanted to be primarily remembered for his painterly snowscapes. But there is much more to remember about Ted, the man. He was charismatic. He was the most inspirational painter and teacher of our time, repeatedly emphasizing the need to paint from life. His honesty and joy showed in each passionate brushstroke. Along with his powerful compositions, his innate sense of color was breathtaking. Ted knew that painting was a gift he had been given to share with others. He was a charming teacher with a great sense of humor. He often remarked how lucky he was to be doing something that he loved. Professionally, he knew that his art gave him a good living, and his strong sense of ethics made him popular with gallery owners. Ted served his faith in God by unselfishly teaching others to explore and develop their own creativity.

Other chapters in his life also served him well as an artist. While in the army, Ted was selected for the honor guard at the Tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington Cemetery. This history explains the perfectly pressed seams in his jeans and his natural coordination and total control over his art tools. His years of boating and fishing in Massachusetts, Maine, and Vermont prompted this remark made to his students; “If you don’t understand why it stays afloat, you can’t paint it”. He taught that an artist must know how to draw, or their paintings would not be believable.

His work ethic was impeccable. That, along with his discipline, organization, foundation, passion, and sensitivity, made him a great artist who will be greatly missed but never forgotten.

JOHN AUGUST DIETRICH MEMORIAL FIGURATIVE AWARD OF EXCELLENCE

To honor my late husband, John, our family created an annual award to be presented at OPA’s National Juried Exhibition. Inaugurated at the 20th Anniversary Exhibition, the first award recipient was Glenn F. Harrington for his painting, “The Breakfast Table”.

When I learned of Glenn’s painting, I smiled as the title brought back some of my fondest memories of John. Early each morning, we wrote in our journals and, at the breakfast table, talked about personal discoveries and new product ideas for RayMar, the company we launched in 1998.

Born in Detroit in 1930 at the height of the Depression, John’s creative and entrepreneurial spirit appeared early. At 5, he collected and sold gallon glass jugs for 5 cents to help his family. When he was 13, he became his piano teacher’s protégé, and she planned to prepare him for the classical concert stage. Instead, his family and teachers encouraged him to enter Sacred Heart Seminary and become a Maryknoll missionary priest. Ordained at 27, his background in philosophy, psychology, and theology prepared him for life’s challenges. Without funding, he created a town in the Amazon rain forest where the indigenous people processed rubber, exported Brazil nuts to New York and London, and formed a community corporation. To speed up production, John invented a nut processing machine. The American broadcast journalist Edward R. Murrow visited John’s Blanca Flor project in Bolivia and did a special report on the “jungle priest” who changed the socio-economic climate of the region. John’s philosophy was “If you can think it, you can do it”. In 1966, Pope Paul VI granted John’s dispensation to follow his dream of becoming an entrepreneur.

John A. Dietrich & Associates blended his experience and sense of humor to teach project management seminars to the top 500 corporations. Later, with XPM, Inc. employing a NASA prototype, he directed programmers to develop software for scheduled maintenance on the FedEx and Continental airline fleets. RayMar was John’s third business, and my daughter Emilie and I have been inspired to carry on his entrepreneurial legacy and provide professional painting panels for artists.

So, in the spirit of John’s desire to make a difference, I applaud every OPA member who takes creative risks. One of you will be our next award recipient.

– Catherine Dietrich
